

Discord Timeouts

Ahhh, the good ol' Discord timeout.

Professionally speaking, this is used to defuse situations that could escalate, most likely when some players get in an argument. This is quite rare and we usually try other methods first, but there's no harm in a little quiet time.

Not-so-professionally speaking, we may timeout Cobalt_Moon from time to time. He deserves it.

We don't typically timeout for any longer than a day. If you still haven't calmed down in 24 hours, you should consider therapy.
